

MASTER IN EUROPEAN BUSINESS 2010

ORAL INTERVIEWS

ENGLISH

Start-up nations

A drive to turn the whole world into entrepreneurs

Nov 17th 2009 The Economist

Consistency is the last refuge of the unimaginative.

Oscar Wilde

How people make up good reasons for bad behaviour

Oct 27th 2009 The Economist

Demography, growth and the environment

Falling fertility

Astonishing falls in the fertility rate are bringing with them big benefits

Oct 29th 2009 The Economist

There are no gains without pains.

Benjamin Franklin

1706-1790, American Scientist, Publisher, Diplomat

Economy Is Forcing Young Adults Back Home in Big Numbers, Survey Finds

November 24, 2009 New York Times

It's time to give up the dream of home ownership, says minister (The Independent)

“Be good and you will be lonely”.
Mark Twain 1835-1910, American Humorist, Writer

For Judges on Facebook, Friendship Has Limits (International Herald Tribune)

Carlo Petrini: The Slow Food gourmet who started a revolution. For 20 years the Slow Food movement has waged war on mass-produced meals. (The Independent)

College Dropouts Cite Low Money and High Stress (International Herald Tribune)

No cash bonuses for top Goldman staff
(International Herald Tribune)

Islam and Switzerland The return of the nativists (The Economist)

European Union split over size of emissions cut. (The Independent)

Brown and Sarkozy call truce to declare war on bankers. Anglo-French relations rejuvenated after launch of joint offensive. (The Independent)

“The computer is only a fast idiot, it has no imagination; it cannot originate action. It is, and will remain, only a tool to man”.

(American Library Association)

“A lie can run around the world six times while the truth is still trying to put on its pants”.

Mark Twain, 1835-1910, American Humorist, Writer

The end of the affair. Falling out of love with business—and business education (The Economist)